North Carolina Business and Professional Women's Foundation

Business and Professional Women (BPW) has clubs across the state of North Carolina. Founded in 1919, BPW/NC promotes equity for all women in the workplace through advocacy, education, and information. BPW/NC offers members professional development programs, networking, participation in grassroots activities, and opportunities to support and help other women through scholarships.

The North Carolina Business and Professional Women's Foundation (BPW/NC Foundation) is pleased to issue a call for scholarship applications to female candidates. BPW/NC Foundation offers four types of scholarships as described below. Applicants must be citizens of the United States and attend a community college, college, university, or graduate studies accredited by the Southern Association of College and Schools. The Scholarship Committee will advise applicants of their decision by June 5, 2022. Incomplete or late applications will be disqualified. Scholarship questions should be directed to Patricia W. Sledge, BPW/NC Foundation Scholarship Chair by phone at (336) 247-3088 or by email at patricia.sledge@outlook.com.
